The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in a tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by William Blair, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses performed by William Blair. The order of the summaries of the analyses described below does not represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by William Blair.

Selected Public Companies Analysis

William Blair reviewed and compared certain financial information relating to the Company to corresponding financial information and multiples for seven ~~selected~~-publicly traded companies in the industrial ~~and~~ specialty distribution sectors with similar business models or financial profiles that William Blair deemed relevant based on its professional judgment and experience. William Blair considered the enterprise value for each company (including the Company), which William Blair calculated as the equity value of ~~such~~the company, plus total debt, minority interest and preferred stock, less cash and cash equivalents. The equity value of each company was calculated using the closing stock price as of July 14, 2026 (the last trading day for reference prior to the entry into the Merger Agreement), multiplied by the total diluted shares outstanding (using the most recent publicly available information as of July 14, 2026). William Blair reviewed the enterprise value as a multiple of (i) last twelve months ~~("LTM")~~("LTM") Adjusted EBITDA and (ii) calendar year 2026 expected ~~("CY 2026E")~~("CY 2026E") Adjusted EBITDA, in each case, based on the ~~P~~Forecasts for the Company and consensus estimates for each other company, sourced from SEC filings and subscription services as of July 14, 2026. Set forth below are the companies and relevant metrics:

William Blair also reviewed, for each selected public company and for the Company, calendar year 2025 actual to calendar year 2026 expected revenue growth and LTM Adjusted EBITDA margin. For the Company, such revenue growth was 8.1% based on the Forecasts and 4.0% based on consensus estimates, and such LTM Adjusted EBITDA margin was 8.6%, in each case pro forma for acquisitions.

William Blair then used the implied enterprise value of $2,328 million based on the per share Merger Consideration of $35.00, the Company's fully diluted shares outstanding of 46.946 million as of July 14, 2026 as provided by the Company's senior management and the net debt of the Company of $685 million as of March 31, 2026, as set forth in and calculated from the Company's public filings, to derive implied valuation multiples for the Company ~~based on the Merger Consideration using for~~ LTM Adjusted EBITDA of $173 million ~~based on historical financial statements, and for~~ CY 2026E Adjusted EBITDA of $203 million based on the ~~P~~For~~ej~~ections and ~~CY 2026E Adjusted EBITDA of~~ $180 million based on ~~Wall Street~~ consensus estimates. William Blair compared the multiples implied for the Company based on the Merger Consideration to the range of trading multiples of the aggregate group of such selected publicly traded companies. Information regarding the multiples derived from William Blair's selected public company analysis is set forth in the following table:

Valuation Multiple	Metric	Implied Transaction Multiple	Min	Mean	Median	Mean	Max
Actuals (1)	Enterprise Value/LTM Adjusted EBITDA — actuals	$173	13.5x	8.6x	16.9x	15.8x	16.9x	26.8x

Consensus Estimates	Enterprise Value/CY 2026E Adjusted EBITDA = consensus estimates	$180	12.9x	8.3x	15.8x	14.4x	15.8x	25.1x

William Blair noted that the analyzed implied valuation multiple for the Company based on the Merger Consideration was within the range of multiples of the selected public~~ly~~ companies.

Although William Blair compared the trading multiples of the selected public companies to those implied for the Company, none of the selected public companies is directly comparable to the Company. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected public companies involved complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would affect the analysis of trading multiples of the selected public companies.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis

William Blair reviewed and compared certain financial information relating to the Company to corresponding financial information and multiples for twelve selected transactions that ~~were announced subsequent to September 1, 2020, that~~ involved the acquisition of companies in the industrial ~~/and~~ specialty distribution sectors with similar business models or financial profiles that William Blair deemed relevant based on its professional judgment and experience. William Blair did not take into account any announced or consummated transaction whereby relevant financial information was not publicly disclosed and the selected transactions are not intended to be representative of the entire range of possible relevant transactions. William Blair reviewed the consideration paid in the selected transactions in terms of the enterprise value of such transactions as a multiple of LTM Adjusted EBITDA based on the most recently available publicly disclosed 12-month historical period at the time of announcement for each respective transaction, and is sourced from SEC filings, company disclosures, press releases and subscription services as of July 14, 2026. William Blair then used the implied enterprise value of $2,328 million based on the per share Merger Consideration of $35.00 and the net debt of the Company of $685 million as of March 31, 2026, as set forth in and calculated from the Company's public filings, to derive an implied transaction multiple for the Company using for LTM Adjusted EBITDA for the last twelve months ended March 31, 2026 of $173 million. William Blair compared the multiple implied for the Company based on the Merger Consideration to the range of transaction multiples of the aggregate group of such selected transactions. Information regarding the multiples from William Blair's selected transaction analysis is set forth in the following table:

Multiple	Implied Merger Multiple	Range of Selected Precedent Transaction Multiples	Implied Transaction Multiple	Min.	Mean	Median	Max.
Actual (1) Enterprise Value/LTM Adjusted EBITDA — actual	13.5x	9.1x	12.4x	11.3x	12.4x	17.3x

William Blair noted that the analyzed implied transaction multiple of LTM Adjusted EBITDA for the Company based on the Merger Consideration was within the range of multiples of the selected transactions.

Although William Blair compared the multiples of the selected transactions to that implied for the Company, none of these transactions or associated companies is directly comparable to the Company or the Merger. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected transactions involved complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics, parties involved and terms of their transactions and other factors that would affect the analysis of multiples of the selected transactions.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

William Blair utilized the Projections to perform a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company's projected future free cash flows for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2026, through December 31, 2030. Using the discounted cash flow methodology, William Blair calculated the present values of the projected after-tax unlevered free cash flows for the Company, using a valuation date of March 31, 2026 and a mid-year discount convention. The projected unlevered free cash flows were burdened by stock-based compensation. In this analysis, William Blair exercised its professional judgment, based on its experience and expertise, and calculated the assumed terminal value of the Company by utilizing a perpetuity growth rate range of 2.0% to 3.0% applied to calendar year 2030 expected unlevered free cash flows. To discount the projected unlevered free cash flows and assumed terminal value to present value, William Blair used discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 11.0% using its professional judgment, based on its experience and ~~expertise, and a calculation of the weighted average cost of capital using the capital asset pricing model.~~ expertise. In performing its analysis, as directed by the management of the Company, William Blair assumed a 29.5% effective tax rate.

William Blair aggregated the present value of the after-tax unlevered free cash flows over the applicable forecast period, the present value of the potential federal tax savings expected to result from the utilization of the Company's federal net operating losses of $4 million and the present value of the assumed terminal value. William Blair then derived a range of implied equity values per share by subtracting net debt of $685 million as of March 31, 2026, as set forth in and calculated from the Company's public filings, and dividing such amount by the Company's fully diluted shares outstanding as of July 14, 2026 as provided by the Company's senior management (calculated based on 46,255,422 common ~~shares,~~ shares and 2,258,658 options at a weighted average strike price of $42.29, 424,717 restricted stock units and 115,988 deferred ~~shares, and excluding out-of-the-money options and 26,754 SPRs).~~ shares). This analysis resulted in a range of implied equity values of $24.86 to $42.63 per share, as compared to the Merger Consideration of $35.00 per share.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis

William Blair utilized the ~~P~~For ~~rejections~~ jections to perform a hypothetical leveraged buyout analysis and calculated the illustrative implied purchase prices at which a leveraged ~~acquisition~~ buyout of the Company could occur and yield a target range of annualized internal rates of return from 18.0% to 22.0% for a potential ~~investor,~~ investor, assuming a net leverage ratio of 5.3x LTM Adjusted EBITDA, or total net debt of $920 million, financed with a unitranche facility priced at SOFR plus 500 basis points. In this analysis, William Blair estimated an exit value by utilizing a range of multiples of 9.0x to 11.0x applied to calendar year 2030 Adjusted EBITDA of $357 million (including an estimated $5 million of ~~annual cost savings~~ direct costs associated with the Company's operations as a public company ~~that the management of the Company indicated may~~ which would no longer be incurred). The target annualized internal rate of return and the range of total net leverage were derived by William Blair utilizing its professional judgment and experience. For purposes of the analysis William Blair ~~assumed total net debt of $920 million~~ utilized valuation and balance sheet figures as of March 31, 2026 (~~approximately 5.3x last twelve months Adjusted EBITDA~~) and ~~utilized~~ the Company's fully diluted shares outstanding as of July 14, 2026 as provided by the Company's senior management. The analysis assumed a 29.5% effective tax rate, giving effect to the utilization of the Company's federal net operating losses during the forecast period, and a management option pool of 10.0%. Based on the range of internal rates of return and exit multiples above, this analysis resulted in a range of implied equity ~~values of~~ value $26.61 to $37.00 per share of ~~the~~ Company Common Stock, as compared to the Merger Consideration of $35.00 per share of Company Common Stock.

M&A Premiums Paid Analysis

William Blair analyzed data from 239 acquisitions of North American publicly traded companies across all industries with transaction equity values between $1 billion and $2 billion that were announced since January 1, 2016. Specifically, William Blair compared the acquisition price per share of each transaction to the closing price of the target company's stock one day, one week, and one month prior to the announcement of such transaction. William Blair then compared the range of resulting per share price premiums for the reviewed transactions to the premiums implied by the Merger Consideration based on ~~the~~ Company's undisturbed share price of $19.31 as of March 13, 2026 (the last trading day prior to public announcement of the proposal to acquire the Company) and on Company's closing share prices ~~one day,~~ one week and one month prior to ~~March 13, 2026 (the last day of trading prior to filing of 13D by LKCM Headwater)~~ of $19.31, $22.09 and $30.84, respectively, such public announcement. Information regarding the premiums from William Blair's analysis of selected transactions is set forth in the following table:

Period	Implied Premium at $35.00/share (1)	Premiums Paid Data Percentile	Premiums Paid Data Percentile: 10th	20th	30th	40th	50th	60th	70th	80th	90th

(1) Implied premium based on Merger Consideration of $35.00 per share. Relative to undisturbed share price of $19.31 as of March 13, 2026.

For the Special Committee's reference only purposes, William Blair also calculated the premiums implied by the Merger Consideration based on Company's closing share price of $27.59 as of July 14, 2026 and on Company's closing share prices one week and one month prior thereto. This analysis resulted in implied premiums of 26.9%, 29.9% and 26.3%, respectively.

General

This summary is not a complete description of the analysis performed by William Blair, but contains the material elements of the analysis. The preparation of an opinion regarding fairness is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. The preparation of an opinion regarding fairness does not involve a mathematical evaluation or weighing of the results of the individual analyses performed, but requires William Blair to exercise its professional judgment, based on its experience and expertise, in considering a wide variety of analyses taken as a whole. Each of the analyses conducted by William Blair was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the Merger Consideration and add to the total mix of information available. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of William Blair providing its opinion and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which securities actually may be sold. William Blair did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support an opinion about the fairness of the Merger Consideration to be received by the Disinterested Stockholders, (other than the holders of Excluded Shares). Rather, in rendering its oral opinion on July 15, 2026 (subsequently confirmed in its written opinion dated July 15, 2026) to the Special Committee, as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations stated in its written opinion, as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by the Disinterested Stockholders, (other than the holders of Excluded Shares) in connection with the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement Shares, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders, William Blair considered the results of the analyses in light of each other and ultimately reached its opinion based on the results of all analyses taken as a whole. William Blair's fairness opinion considered each valuation method equally and did not place any particular reliance or weight on any particular analysis, but instead concluded that its analyses, taken as a whole, supported its determination. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, William Blair believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, may create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to the Company or the Merger. In performing its analyses, William Blair made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters. The analyses performed by William Blair are not necessarily indicative of future actual values and future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses.
